

INTRODUCTION TO OIL & GAS

Dates: Flexible

Venue: Aberdeen/London UK, Duration: 2 Weeks

DESCRIPTION

The oil and gas industry employs a wide range of personnel with different skills, some of which are non-technical or related to the technical aspect of the industry. This course provides a general introduction to the oil and gas industry in a non-technical and understandable manner to enable delegates see and appreciate the connections and relationships between the various departments, departments and sectors of this industry.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The course has been designed for individuals with little or no knowledge of the technical aspects of the oil and gas industry including Policy-makers, Finance and HR Directors/Managers, Materials and Logistics personnel. Individuals planning to start a career in the oil and gas industry would also benefit from the course.

BENEFITS FOR EACH DELEGATE

- Pre-arrival Documentation including Visa Support Letters
- Assistance with securing suitable Accommodation
- Welcome Pack
- Course Material
- Access to Internet and BBC News Channels
- Tour of Aberdeen (2 or more-week courses)
- Lunch and Light Refreshments
- Course Certificate
- Complimentary Airport Transfers
- Complimentary laptop

COURSE OBJECTIVE CONTENT

- The role of oil and gas in the global energy demand
- Introduction to segments of the oil and gas industry
- Exploration
- Field production and processing
- Transportation
- Refining
- Marketing
- Elements of International oil and gas law and contracts